What does the program offer?

- A virtual DC internship
- A mentor in your field
- Guided research, writing, and professional exploration
- A weekly seminar
- A network of peers and DC experts
- Personalized and customized learning experience tailored to your academic interests

The Professional Development Program connects you with a distinguished expert in DC. Together you will design a research topic that benefits the mentor and strengthens your professional skills. In addition, you will attend a weekly seminar with your peers and Dr. Shelton Williams. This is a transformative 6 week experience with a flexible schedule and a tailored design. There are two six-week sessions. One starts on June 1st, and the other starts on July 13th, 2021.

Beginning in June 2021
